

United States Bankruptcy Court

Western District of Massachusetts

Debtor Case No. 07-43198-JBR

In re Gailon Arthur Joy,
Debtor

)
)
)
)
)
Chapter 7

RESPONSE OF THE DEBTOR TO THE TRUSTEE'S REQUEST FOR DOCUMENTS

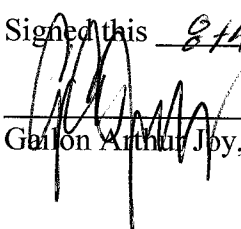

NOW COMES GAILON ARTHUR JOY, Debtor, and gives his Response to the Request of the Chapter 7 Trustee for documents, answering the numbered paragraphs as follows:

1. A copy of the pending complaint is available as a public document and therefore need not be provided. Nonetheless, a copy obtained from the PACER system has been provided.
2. A copy of the answer is available as a public document and therefore need not be provided. Nonetheless, a copy obtained from the PACER system has been provided.
3. The debtor makes no allegation of any claims against any of the individuals or entities referred to as the "Buyers". Nonetheless, the debtor reserves his right to make such claims as may arise in the future or may become mature upon future events. Therefore, there are no such documents or recorded information in the debtor's possession to provide
4. The debtor makes no allegation of any claims against any of the individuals or entities referred to as the "Buyers". Nonetheless, the debtor reserves his right to make such claims as may arise in the future or may become mature upon future events. Therefore, there are no such documents or other information in the debtor's possession to provide.
5. The debtor makes no allegation of any claims against any of the individuals or entities referred to as the "Buyers". Nonetheless, the debtor reserves his right to make such claims as may arise in the future or may become mature upon future events. The debtor has had no transactions with the Buyers other than the exchange of documents during the legal action filed by the Buyers. The debtor is not apprised of what the claims that the Buyers are seeking to purchase from the Estate. The debtor is particularly unaware that the Trustee is selling occurrences as property of the Estate.

6. The debtor makes no allegation of any claims against any of the individuals or entities referred to as the "Buyers". Nonetheless, the debtor reserves his right to make such claims as may arise in the future or may become mature upon future events. The debtor is unaware of any legal action involving the Buyers or himself other than the case filed by the Buyers and this bankruptcy case filed by himself. The debtor is not aware of any pending legal action that is the subject of claims against the Buyers, unless it would include the adversary proceeding in this case and this Court.

Signed this 8th day of February, 2008

Gailon Arthur Joy, Debtor.

Respectfully Submitted,

Gailon Arthur Joy,
By His Attorney,

/s/ Laird J. Heal

Laird J. Heal, Esq., BBO # 553901
78 Worcester Road, P. O. Box 365
Sterling, MA 01564
978-422-0135
LJHeal@conversent.net